MAGIC RUG CONCERTS

Join us for an interactive experience that joins together the ART of Music, Dance, Theatre and Instruments in a one of a kind performance series that is designed for the whole family!

October 10, 2009 - Ralph's Secret Weapon

Bassoon Quartet with Cassandra Bendickson, Rebecca Cain, Jessica Campbell and Lisa Renteria
Eight year old Ralph becomes a hero when uses his 'secret weapon' to save people from a sea serpent. Enjoy this original adaptation of the beloved Steven Kellogg story "RALPHS SECRET WEAPON".

November 21, 2009 - Dancing with Royalty

Dance, Guitar & Bass with Claire Hancock, Michael Lich and Robert Matheson
Young Princes and Princesses will delight in this lively concert where the very best in baroque dances will be featured when 16th century meets the 21st century! Live music and interactive dance activity make this concert especially fun. Put on your comfortable shoes and be ready to dance.

January 9, 2010 - Dancing Carnival of the Animals Dance with Claire Hancock

Move to the music of St. Saens' 'Carnival of the Animals' - float like a swan, swim like a fish, leap like a horse, flutter like a bird, hop like a kangaroo, thunder like an elephant, kick like a donkey, and roar like a lion! The carnival comes to life through movement!

February 13, 2010 - The International Adventures of Aunt Rhody and Uncle Bob

String Trio with Catherine Simmons, Jose Reyes and Garrick Woods
Join Aunt Rhody and Uncle Bob on a global tour, encountering music from Mexico, Brazil, Egypt, China, Scotland, Vienna, the North Pole and a Texas Ranch! Young travelers can dress in the costume of their favorite location and play along on simple rhythm instruments.

April 3, 2010 - "Moving Body in Rhythm"

Percussion and Dance with Claire Hancock & Drew Andreatta
Djembes, Congas, Bells, Shakers and more will make you 'move it, move it!' Through world rhythms, discover the dynamic relationship of dance and percussion!

The Southern Arizona Arts & Cultural Alliance would like to sincerely thank the Town of Oro Valley for underwriting this spectacular program for the family!
